PHEASANT FOCUS

Queen Denae and King Mason Reign

by Brynnley Neuharth

Students, family, faculty and community members gathered in the Ken Greeno building for the Homecoming Coronation ceremony on Sept. 20 at 8:00PM. The guest alumni speaker was Mrs. Nancy Blume. The band, led by director Mr. Cassens, played the school song and other selections, and juniors Bridgette Lambert and Charley Nuhsbaumer served as MCs for the annual event that kicks off Homecoming week.

(Story continues at right.)

Chosen by the RHS student body, Denae Paulsen and Mason Fey were chosen to represent RHS as the 2021-2022 Homecoming Queen and King.

Student Body Chooses Paulsen & Fey to Reign over Homecoming Festivities

by Brynnley Neuharth

On Monday, Sept. 20, the results of the RHS student body vote had been counted, and the results showed that the 2021-2022 Homecoming King and Queen would be Mason Fey and Denae Paulsen.

The Homecoming royalty court consisted of queen candidates Reagan Nelson, Kinsey Bowar, Madysson Zens, Chelsea Smith and Denae Paulsen, and the king candidates included Mason Fey, Jacob Fehlman, Sean Domke, Carter Wright, and Corbin Schwartz.

Bridgette Lambert and Charley Nuhsbaumer led the ceremony, and alumni speaker Nancy Blume addressed the audience. To make her speech relate to the Homecoming theme, "History through the Ages," Mrs. Blume talked about the history of Homecoming week and how it all started in 1920, along with the many different traditions of Homecoming.

Taking the Taste Test

Redfield Post Prom Hosted the Annual Chili Cookoff; Wild Roots Takes First Place in Competition

by Gracie Fast

On Friday, Sept. 24, the Redfield Post Prom committee hosted the annual Chili Cookoff. The event took place right before the Pheasants took a win over the Deuel Cardinals.

The Chili Cookoff started at 5 pm, located at the North Picnic Shelter Area of the Redfield City Park, and ended at 6:30 pm.

The teams that participated in the chili cookoff were Heartland State Bank, Dave Nelson, Chrystal's and Schlechter Farms, SDDC Tailgaters, Wild Roots, Osborn Agency and Modern Woodman, Redfield Clinic and CMH, Redfield Fire Department, and PTSA.

Wild Roots, with the most votes, took 1st place at the 2021 Redfield Chili Cookoff.

Show You Care: Volunteer

I think more people should start volunteering in the community because they can make our town a better place. I say that because the community loves when they get help by anyone. The more help they can get, the better our community will be in the future. You could go help one time and they'll appreciate the little thing you did. You don't have to do it every day of your life, even though it'd make a lot of people happy if you did, but you could help once a week or once a month and they'll be thankful. Helping the community will also make you look better. It may even help the school look better.

Another way to support your community and school is to go to football and volleyball games. I bet some of your friends will be there, you can go hang out with them and watch the game. Life goes by fast, go to at least one school game before you graduate. The team really appreciates the support. Go cheer them on and bring some friends. If you don't have anything going on and there is a game that night, go to it. You may think it won't be fun, but I bet people you know will be there and games are usually better with friends.

Make Your Choice.

Students Gather for Pep Assembly

by Teige Lewis

The 2021 pep assembly started off with the Redfield high school pep band. They played a few pieces, including "Shut Up and Dance", "Timber", "Crazy Train", "The Hey Song", and "The National Anthem."

The Ken Greeno building was filled top to bottom with hundreds of students from elementary, middle, and high school. Many of the Redfield citizens and students' families were also there.

Once the band finished opening for the assembly, Jacob Fehlman and Olivia

Owens gave a kick start to the assembly with their speech.

Later, they announced teams for one of the multiple mini games that were played by the high school students.

Students had their names drawn out randomly and were called down from the bleachers. There were 6 teams of 6 people. Each person had to take turns sitting or lying on the scooter, and they then had to push themselves to half court using 2 toilet plungers.

"If I could've gone every time, my team would've dominated and won. Mic drop," Mr. Gregg said.

Next, Jacob Fehlman called down 8 senior girls and 8 senior boys. The boys had to sit in chairs, while the girls had one minute to apply makeup to the guys. After hard decisions were made, Corbin Schwartz won the title "Prettiest Princess."

After that event, the football cheerleaders had been called down to chant for "the jug."

In this, the cheerleaders chant, "who ra ra ra Redfield High School?" 3 times, and then the group in front of them yells back, "we ra ra ra Redfield High School" 3 times. The group that yells it the loudest, wins the jug.

After they went through every class, they went to the elementary side and let them "practice" the chant for when they get older. They did it for fun, and anyone could tell that they had a blast with it. The juniors ended up being the loudest group, and they then won the jug for this year.

After the pep assembly, students were dismissed to go get ready for the parade, which started at 2:00PM.

Scream It Out. Although senior class members scream their loudest, the Yelling of the Jug was won by the junior class.

Seniors Jacob Fehlman and Olivia Owens were in charge of keeping the Homecoming pep assembly moving along so that it would be finished in time for students to be released to go to the parade.

FFA Students Compete in Land & Range Judging Contests

by Jadie Turner

On Sept. 22, the Redfield FFA traveled to Athol, SD for a practice land judging contest.

Approximately 15 RHS students attended this event led by FFA supervisor Mr. Cihak.

Even though this was an unofficial contest, it is helping them prepare to go to Wolsey Wessington for the Central Region Land & Range

Contest to be held on Sept. 29.

Throughout the next few months make sure to be watching them, as they travel to Hoven, Brookings, Miller, and maybe even Pierre!

"I have not been in FFA for very long yet, but I am looking forward to the rest of the year!" freshman Creighton Bowar said.

Mrs. Brace Receives Lifetime Achievement Award for FCCLA Involvement

by Adriana Osborn

Mrs. Brace, RHS CTE educator, worked hard over the years teaching Family and Consumer Science, leading her to be awarded the SDACTE Lifetime Achievement and Hall of Fame Award.

The purpose of this award is to recognize CTE professionals for the leadership they implement on behalf of ACTE. It also recognizes the innovations in CTE and the contributions they have over an extended period of time.

To be considered for the award, candidates need to demonstrate leadership in the CTE field. For example, they would describe leadership skills development in the CTE field by holding leadership positions, volunteer work, and any contributions they enacted in benefit of career and technical education. The selection committee also considers ACTE, NATFACS, and SDACTE membership and activity details. In short, winning the award shows the involvement in all levels by helping out on a local, state, and national level in career education.

CTSO integration is an integral part of the FACS program. It includes providing opportunities for student skills and leadership development. Work-based learning addresses the delivery involving interactions with industry and community professionals. Experiences may occur in workplaces, the community and educational institutions.

Come April, Mrs. Brace will be in the Regional competition. She has been teaching for 39 years, 32 of which she has spent in Redfield.

calli (13-25, 21-25, 15-25); Hitchcock Tulare (16-25, 24-25); Mt. Vernon/Plankinton (9-25, 22-25, 27-29); and Miller (25-23, 22-25, 20-25, 20-25).

Camryn Rohlf leads in serves 31 aces, 304 assist, and 133 digs, Gracie Fast leads in kills with 142, and Katie Rozell leads in blocking, 16 solo and 13 assists.

Cheer Takes 5th at Volga

by Adalyn Stoner

On Sept. 14, the Redfield Competition cheerleaders hosted the Pheasant Invite. They got 3rd with a total of 119 points.

On Sept. 23, the cheerleaders attended the Sioux Valley Invite @Volga and got 5th with a score of 109 points.

The cheerleaders have 3 more competitions to attend to which include: the Faulkton Invite on Oct. 11, the Platte-Geddes Invite on Oct. 16, and the Lake Preston Invite on Oct. 18.

This year, state will be held at Brandon, SD on Oct. 23. Cassie Boomsma is the new cheer coach and is keeping the girls determined to not give up and helping them with anything they need.

When asked what is the biggest accomplishment the cheerleaders have achieved, Coach Boomsma said, "Without being able to tumble, we have been working extra hard with stunts and other parts of our routine."

Middle School Runners Round Out XC Team

by Brooklyn Rische

The cross country team has a small team with only six people. The team is made up of all middle schoolers. There is one 8th grader: Payton Moore; four 7th graders: Charli Jungwirth, Kendyl Siebrecht, Hannah Lemmer and Emma Fugman; and one 6th grade: Faith Wright.

Their last meet was the Lennox Orioles XC Invite at the Lenkota Golf Course on Sept. 30. At the meet, Charli Jungwirth came in strong with a 1st place finish in the 4,000 meter JV race with a time of 16:41.35. Also at the meet for 4,000 meters JV race, Kendyl Siebrecht placed 18th with a time of 18:37.55. For the boys JV 4,000 meter race, Payton Moore placed 13th with a time of 14:58.32. Emma Fugman ran the 3,000 meter Middle School race and placed 31st with a time of 16:57.54.

The young team has competed in seven other events: the Miller Invitational (Sept. 27), the Cyclone Invitational (Sept. 23), The Deuel Invitational (Sept. 20), The Roncalli Invite (Sept. 16), the Milbank Grandstay Invitational (Sept. 11), the Redfield Invite (Sept. 3) and the Don Ray Invitational at Deubrook (Aug. 28). These young runners gain valuable experience at every race they attend.

Pheasant Invite.

Senior Spotlight

Kinsey Bowar is the daughter of Debbie and Preston Bowar. She has a sister, Chaley, and a brother, Creighton. She's been involved in both football cheer and competition cheer for 3 years and Core Kenetics dance for 9 years. The class she enjoyed most was Ms.

Brooke's Honors English. She says that her honors class always made each assignment enjoyable, and she learned a lot. Three things she must do in her lifetime include: going to Greece, having kids, and building a huge house. She plans on attending USD for Dental Hygiene.

Cashten Jeffries is the son of Nicki Mommer and Jason Jeffries. He has two brothers: Rocco and Rylan. His favorite childhood memory is sledding. The classes he has enjoyed the most are History and English. Cashten has worked for Haider Construction, Inc., for about three years. His favorite hobby is hanging out with friends. The three things he must do in his lifetime is make money, travel, and make more money. He plans to work or go to college.

Reagan Nelson is the daughter of Dana Lefforge and Neil Nelson. She has two brothers: Gregory Nelson and Colton Lefforge. The accomplishments she is most proud of is making Honor Choir and All State. Her favorite high school memory was going to Hawaii for a choir trip. The class she's enjoyed the most is choir, because she likes music and it's helped her confidence tremendously. The thing she will miss the most after she graduates is her friends when they all go to different schools and won't see each other every day. She plans to attend USD and become an Occupational Therapy Assistant.

Pheasants Defeat Deuel in Homecoming Action

by Brooklyn Rische

The Redfield Pheasants hosted the Deuel Cardinals in Homecoming action on Friday, Sept. 24. The Pheasants scored three times in the first half and kept the Cardinals from scoring during the entire game to come out with a 18-0 victory.

"Winning the homecoming football game has been my best football memory so far. It really ends the week on a high note. Winning my last homecoming with a shut-out against a good team felt very good," senior Mason Fey said.

The Redfield Pheasants traveled to Webster for Webster's homecoming on Friday, Sept. 17. They brought home the win with a score of 26-9. On Friday,

Sept. 10 the Pheasants traveled to Aberdeen and took on the Roncalli Cavaliers at their Homecoming game. They fell short and lost the game at 6-30. The Redfield Pheasants hosted the Clark/Willow Lake Cyclones in a very exciting game on Friday, Sept. 3. The Pheasants put the game away in the last 11 seconds with a touchdown to win the game with a score of 19-14. They traveled to play the Groton Area Tigers in Groton on Friday, Aug. 27. The Pheasants fell short to the Tigers with a score of 10-7.

The first Redfield Pheasants football game of the season was hosted in Redfield against the Dakota Hills Grizzlies on Friday, Aug. 20. The boys started the season off strong with a win against the Grizzlies with a score of 31-6.

Mitchell Mack Advances to State Golf

by Addisyn Evans

Starting off the boy's golf season, the first golf meet was held in Sioux Valley on Aug. 16. The boys had only a week's worth of practicing in before they headed off to compete.

The Pheasants varsity golf team headed to Pierre on Aug. 20 to participate in pre-regions.

Throughout the week, the boys spent time preparing for regions. On Aug. 27, the Pheasant golf team headed to Pierre once more.

Overall, the Pheasants golf team placed 5th in regions as a team.

Mitchell Mack shot a 92 placing 11th and making his way to State Golf.

State Golf will be held Oct. 4-5 in Madison.

When asked how he felt about making it to State Golf, Mack responded that he was most excited about "spending three days with Mr. Cihak."

Journalism Staff Earns Honors at Virtual High School Press Convention

by Camryn Rohlfs

Although students finished the 2021 yearbook and newspaper months ago, the staff and adviser Mrs. Frost just found out how they ranked during the High School Press Convention, which was held virtually on October 18 and presented by Black Hills State University in conjunction with South Dakota State University.

The Pheasant yearbook received Superior honors and the newspaper was ranked as Excellent. Several students also earned awards in individual news-writing events. 2021 editor Abby Evans received Excellent in General News-writing, Feature Story, and Sports Writing. 2021 editor Kiara Terry received an Excellent in General News-writing, Justice Baloun received an Excellent in the category of general news-writing. CJ Ulmer received an excellent in Feature Story. Four staff members received Honorable Mention for their stories: Tori Weinreis (Editorial), Kiara Terry (Sports), Abby Evans (Editorial) and Frakeithus Robinson (Sports).

Starting at 8:15a.m. students and advisers registered online and signed in for the door prize drawing. Opening remarks were made by Marina Hendricks, SDSU and the welcome address was by Dr. Laurie Nichols, BHSU.

Participants watched brief break-out sessions throughout the day. If they could not be present, they will have the opportunity to watch recordings at a later date.

Session 1, "Editorial Cartoons: What's So Funny About the Truth?" was presented by Alex Portal.

Session 2, "Getting Started in TV

News" was presented by Jack Caudill.

Session 3, "Writing for the Ear" was presented by Seth Tupper.

Session 4, "Telling Stories Visually" was presented by Dee Sleep.

At noon there was a break, then when students returned there was a Virtual BHSU Campus Tour and a panel discussion with perspectives on the News Media.

The door prize drawing at 2:00p.m. was the last event. This was presented by Brooks Bowman, SDHSAA, and Marina Hendricks, SDSU. Addisyn Evans was the student winner of the door prize and won an HP Chromebook.

"I am pleased with our ratings for the yearbook and newspaper. Students put so much effort into these two publications. I am looking forward to next year, and I hope we are able to have it in person," adviser Mrs. Kaylin Frost said.

Community Holds Third Annual "Career Here"

by Ajay Rogers

On Oct. 20, Grow Spink held the third annual Career Here for area high school students. RHS juniors and seniors attended the event at the armory.

Other schools attending Career Here included Northwestern, Doland, Hitchcock/Tulare and Miller.

Thirty-three businesses and schools from around the area set up booths for students to visit and find out more information about programs and possible career choices.

Some of the colleges that came were Lake Area Tech, Mitchell Tech and Northern State University.

Students completed surveys, and out of the 158 that were submitted, 75% said that if the opportunity existed, they would want to live and work in their hometowns.

Some of the top dream job responses on the surveys were: Farmer, Doctor, Nurse, Diesel Technician, Counselor and Teacher.

How Far Is Too Far?

Think for a second how far would you go for some one-minute fame on TikTok. Some people would do anything for some attention on TikTok. The question is: have they gone too far? You might say people

Keely Hawkins, journalism staff

do this stuff for fun and it's not dangerous. But it can be. The Benadryl challenge, for example, encourages users to take excessive amounts of the medication to try to experience a high that could cause hallucinations. The FDA asked TikTok to remove the videos warning that taking too much of the medication can lead to serious heart problems, seizures, coma, or even death.

The Devious Lick Challenge started as taking little things from school then turned into something way bigger. At first people started taking little things like pencils from teachers or something off their desk to see if they noticed. When that didn't happen, people then just started stealing huge or expensive things from school or breaking things. Supervisors and principals tried to be as calm as they possibly could and tried to stop the problem by stopping the kids from going to the bathroom or having someone supervise the people who go in and out of the bathroom.

My opinion on the matter is that sometimes trends do go too far. Farther than we would have wanted them to go, but people are the ones who make those decisions. Some of these trends shouldn't have even been created. I just don't understand how people could go through with taking large amounts of medicine. Some trends are harmless like dancing or riding a skateboard with cranberry juice while listening to Fleetwood Mac. Some trends go too far, and some don't. It depends on who is promoting that trend and what the trend entails. People need to be smart enough to know what it safe to do and what is not safe, and that just doing something someone else does is not always the right thing to do.

A student posts photographs on TikTok about the "Devious Lick" Challenge at their local school. TikTok sometimes encourages unacceptable behaviors.

New and Returning NHS Members Focus on New Projects

by Brooklyn Rische

The NHS induction ceremony was held on Oct. 19 in the auditorium. That night, they inducted fourteen new members to the organization, and they have 8 returning members.

There were two new seniors inducted: Connor Appel and Owen Osborn and twelve new juniors inducted: Ashtin Arthurs, Ashlyn Clausen, Elizabeth Evans, Gracie Fast, Bridgette Lambert, Mitchell Mack, Charley Nuhsbaumer, Camryn Rohlfs, Mallory Smith, Trae Turck and Marie Weller.

Returning members from last year were Chelsea Smith as president, Mason Fey as Vice president, Corbin Schwartz as secretary, Breanna Roth, Cameron Schmidt, Jacob Fehlman, Isabella Cosato and Camden Osborn.

The students in NHS are required to complete 25 hours of community service during the school year, 5 of them being mentor hours in classrooms.

Some of the events they participate in include JK – Kindergarten trick or treating where NHS students set up in different spots around the school while the students came around to get candy. Some other things they will do is a Give to Get Food Drive and Make a Wish/ Letters to Santa.

For these activities they may team up with student council or FCCLA to make all of the activities come together.

Competition Cheer Team Competes at State

by Brynnley Neuharth

On Oct. 22, the competition cheer team competed in the state competition held in Brandon.

The girls placed 14th in small group cheer out of 16 total teams.

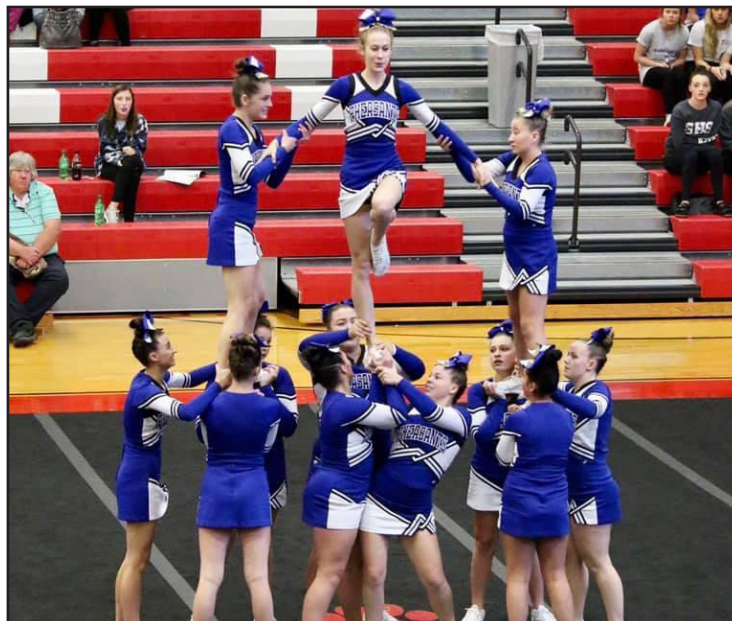

In the end, they took 20th out of 22 with an overall score of 152. They scored their best out of the entire year on Friday at State.

On Friday, they warmed up at 1:55 pm for their later performance, that was 2:30 seconds long, at 5:50 pm.

On Oct. 16, the team competed in the Lake Preston cheer invite. The girls placed last, with an overall score of 120.

According to freshman Jadie Turner, "Our season didn't end how we wanted it to, but we improved over the season and I will never forget how much fun it was to compete."

Pheasants Volleyball Play for Pink Night Against Groton

On the Court: Junior Gracie Fast digs for the ball on Pink Night at the game against Groton. The volleyball team fell short to Groton in a close game of 5 sets.

by Adalyn Stoner

Coming close to the end on the season, the varsity volleyball record stands at 13-13.

On Oct. 26, the girls played the Groton Tigers. They also had Parents Night and Pink Night. The first set on Tuesday night ended 22-25, then the girls pulled through with a win on the second set 25-16. The girls fell short to Groton on the last two sets, 13-25 and 21-25.

On Oct. 25, the Pheasants lost against Wolsey-Wessington in Redfield. On Friday Oct. 23, the Lady Pheasants went to Webster and lost. They had 5 sets and lost the last set 11-15.

Fundraising that happened at Pink Night included SDSU ice cream for sale and Socktopia. Mrs. Brace and FCCLA sold socks and donated the money to orphanages. If you did not get a chance to purchase socks at the game, they will be available for limited time in Mrs. Brace's classroom.

"It's been a good season, and I have enjoyed playing with these girls and this team. I hope we continue on through the post season!" junior Gracie Fast said.

Eights Students Travel to Rapid City to Participate in All State Choir

by Mady Siebrecht

All-State chorus was held in Rapid City. It was held on Oct. 30 at 7:30, the rehearsal was on Oct. 29.

Reagan Nelson and Mercedes Yada sang soprano. Chyllis Ulmer and Lori Whitley sang alto. Jonathan Cristobal and Raymond Brisendine sang tenor, and Marcus Johnson and Zachary Akin rounded out the bass section.

The music that was sung was selected from these songs, "Star Spangled Banner" (combined with the All-State Orchestra), "Before The Whirlwind", "How Can You Buy The Sky" (combined with the All-State Orchestra), "Hope", "O Vos Omnes", "Masam-beni", "I Am Alive", "Believe In Love" (combined with the All-State Orchestra), "I Hear America Singing" (combined with the All-State Orchestra).

Also among the three entries of solo audition that were sent in Jonathan Carmine Cristobal was one of the 16 finalists for the All-State Soloist.

"I have been in choir for a long time, and it has always been one of my favorite classes. I have experienced so many awesome things like honor choir, all state, and regional contest. I loved going to Sioux Falls and Rapid City for all the state and honor choir because I got to meet new people, and I like working with big choirs. I was excited for All State because we didn't get to go last year, and I felt like this year was going to be an amazing comeback," senior Reagan Nelson said.

He plans to attend Mitchell Tech for Electrical Construction and Maintenance to become an electrician.

Pheasants Finish Season with 5-3 Record

by Teige Lewis

For the first time in over five decades, the Pheasants football team won every game played on their home turf. It was in the 1970s when that last happened.

The Pheasants, 11 of whom are seniors, ended their season with five wins and 4 losses.

The Pheasants' season ended in the first round of playoffs when they faced the Roncalli Cavaliers at Swisher Field in Aberdeen on Oct. 21. The buzzer put the Cavaliers on top with a 14-6 victory over the Pheasants.

Paul Juarez finished his last high school game with a touchdown and 7 catches for 111 yards.

The only touchdown that was scored happened when quarterback Easton Millar connected with Paul Juarez with a 12-yard pass to the end zone.

In post-season statistics, Mason Whitley led the team with 346 yards. Top receivers included Paul Juarez with 31 and Keaton Rohlfs with 30. Rohlfs led the team with 615 yards while Mason Whitley racked up the most touchdowns for a total of 6.

"This is our best record in a long time. I'm happy with this year's season," freshman Collin Dean said.

Mitchell Mack Competes in State Golf

by Addisyn Evans

One RHS golfer ended his season at the state golf meet; junior Mitchell Mack traveled to Madison with Coach Bradley Chihak on Oct. 3-5. The boys' state golf qualifiers got up at 8am Sunday morning for a few practice rounds.

Monday started the 2021 Boys' State Golf Tournament. Mack shot a 104 the first day of state, following with a score of 96 on Tuesday. Overall, Mack placed 69th in the state with a final score of 200.

When asked what his favorite part of state was, Mack answered, "I got to see a hole in one, which was very cool to watch. I also had a wonderfully great time with Mr. Chihak."

Local Girls Compete in Redfield Area Snow Queen; Rische and Roth Reign

by Brynnley Neuharth

On Sunday, Nov. 14, the annual Snow Queen festival took place in the Redfield Public School auditorium.

Angela Weller served as Snow Queen committee chair and Jade Jandel as MC. Mason Fey, Jacob Fehlman and Frosty served as ushers.

There were five candidates for the Snow Queen event. The senior candidates were Kiara O'Daniel and Breanna Roth. The crowned Senior Queen was Breanna Roth. The junior candidates were Brooklyn Rische, Brynnley Neuharth and Taijsa Puok. The crowned Junior Snow Queen was Brooklyn Rische.

Awarded Miss Congeniality was Taijsa Puok. The crowned Snow Prince and Princess were Tucker Jandel and Tabytha Duff.

The annual Snow Queen tradition of revealing Frosty took place after the intermission. After the crowd took their guesses of who Frosty was, they revealed Keith Komraus.

"It was a very fun experience and it was a lot of fun spending time with classmates and friends throughout the day. It was something different that I had never done before and I am so glad I decided to try it and get out of my comfort zone and I can't wait to compete at state in January," freshman Brooklyn Rische said.

Roth and Rische will both take part in the State Snow Queen competition in January 2022.

"I had a really great day spending time with both the Junior Snow Queen and Senior Snow Queen candidates. I love that the Snow Queen program gives us the opportunity to expand on interview and onstage skills that we can use later on in life as well as now. I look forward to competing at state in Aberdeen and having the opportunity to meet so many amazing queens and other competitors," senior Breanna Roth said.

Freshman Taijsa Puok got voted Miss Congeniality by her peers at the 2022 Redfield Area Snow Queen Competition on Nov. 14. The other girls vote for one other person for whom they think is the most deserving, kind, and overall helpful and a good person to the other competitors throughout the day.

FCCLA Members Attend National Meeting in Washington D.C.

by Addisyn Evans

FCCLA members Lilly Blume, Sol Munoz Parias, and Breanna Roth, traveled to Washington DC Nov. 2-7. The first day they flew to Washington DC, they then spent their time resting for the upcoming day. The following day the members toured the following: Ford's Theater, National Archive and Arlington National Cemetery. On Nov. 4, the Holocaust Museum, Washington Monument, and the Capitol Leadership Conference were toured by FCCLA members.

Starting the third day, all FCCLA members took a picture on the Capital Hill, following with a meeting with: Representative Dusty Johnson, Senator Mike Rounds' staff, and Senator Thune.

Members finished the Capitol Leadership Conference, to then attend the National Fall Leadership Conference Opening Session.

With one day left, the FCCLA members attended National Fall Leadership Conference, Georgetown Cupcakes, Union Station, and a Moonlight Tour of the Memorials. Nov. 7 ended the FCCLA fun with a flight back home.

The U.S. Capitol was filled with youth from around the country as Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) and Family and Consumer Sciences professionals united in Washington, D.C. for FCCLA's Capitol Leadership to advocate for additional funding for Career and Technical Education. More than 400 members and advisers from across the country participated in FCCLA's Capitol Leadership.

FCCLA challenged all conference attendees to "Make it Count" through Advocacy training opportunities, Hill Day Role Play, participating in an advocacy rally, and reflecting on their individual Hill Visits.

2021 National Fall Conference was held in Washington, DC, November 5-7. FCCLA's 2021 NFC drew more than 700 members, advisers, and supporters from across the nation with opportunities for personal development, career exploration, and community service.

FCCLA members received the opportunity to network with fellow youth leaders and learn about career and college options through exploring the career pathways of Human Services, Hospitality and Tourism, Education and Training, and Visual Arts and Design.

Those in attendance at NFC were encouraged by FCCLA's annual theme, "Make it Count," in which they shared with fellow NFC participants how they utilize the skills, experiences, and knowledge gained through FCCLA to make a difference in their families, careers, and communities across America.

"The highlight of the weekend was meeting with our senators and house of representatives and telling them about FCCLA and facts," adviser Mrs. Cindy Brace said.

Is Winter for You?

Winter has a lot of pros and cons, for pros it's fun to play in and you can go sledding and snowboarding in it, but there are also a lot of cons. Some cons that issue in winter are car accidents and blizzards; you can also get very depressed if you have to isolate because the snow is so bad.

Personally, I don't like winter. Why I don't like winter is because I don't like how cold it gets and the snow. I have never liked the snow because it makes things a lot harder to do, like driving, walking, and just being able to go outside.

I only like winter because of Christmas and the feeling that you get when it's snowing on Christmas.

I know a lot of people like winter and the snow, but I really don't like it. In South Dakota we get very bad winters where some days we can't go to school, and then we are stuck in our house.

To me, the snow makes it very hard to do things out of my house like driving around, going on walks and going to another town. It just makes thing harder than they need to be.

I talked to a couple people at my school and majority of people said that they love the winter.

FFA Chapter Travels to Indianapolis for National Convention

by Brooklyn Rische

On Monday, Oct. 25, four high school students traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana, on a 13 ½ hour drive.

In total there were 4 students who participated: Bridgette Lambert, Lilly Blume, Riley Brabant, and Carter Wright.

The group started the trip by touring the Fair Oaks Farm in Indiana on the first day. While there, they got to see technology used in the dairy and swine industries.

When in Indianapolis, the students participated in sessions, workshops, community service projects, a Career Fair, and a College Fair. They also went to a rodeo as and an Alex Miller and Brett Young concert.

The FFA members got to interact with other students there from across the country and see what opportunities were available on the large er scope of FFA. In total at the National FFA Convention there were around 65,000 attendees.

“One of my favorite things about the National FFA Convention was being able to meet so many people from around the US. I am so glad I got to meet and learn with many others from around the US. After just one week, I know what I want to do for my future,” sophomore Lilly Blume said.

FBLA Students Attend Fall Leadership

by Jaci Hofeman

On Nov. 8, FBLA adviser Mr. Tommy Gregg took fourteen students to Watertown for Fall Leadership. They left the school at 7:30a.m. and got back at 3:25p.m. They got to Lake Area Tech at 8:45a.m.

There were 34 teams and 4 groups. Each group had the same activity to do but, at different times. The first activity was at 12:30p.m.

The activities included, Future Finances, Quiz Bowl, Team Time, Escape Room, and lunch. The activities they took part in made them work on leadership development.

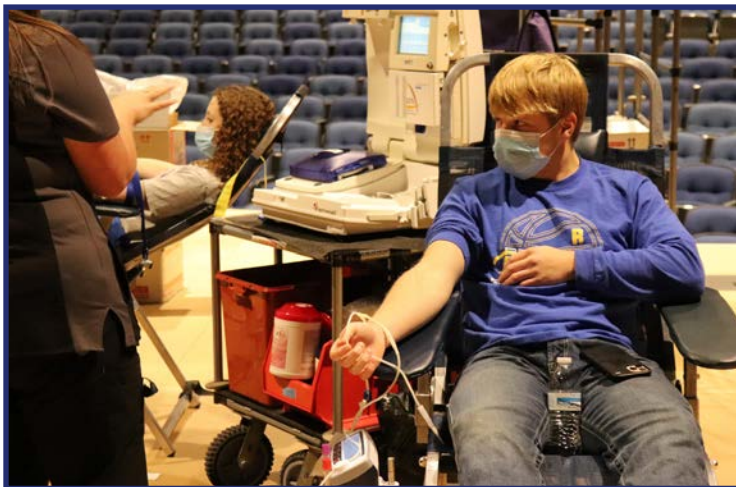

They all gathered back in the main room at 12:45p.m. Sophomore Carmen Herrera got nominated for best dressed in the FBLA group.

“I believe the Fall Leadership Conference was very important for our FBLA members because it gave us the chance to go through workshops and challenge our leadership skills. It was also a way to meet a befriend other local chapters,” junior Trae Turck said.

Attending Fall Leadership were (front) Charley Nuhsbaumer, Carmen Herrera, Adalyn Stoner, Bridgette Lambert, Marie Weller, Cameron Schmidt, (back) Annie Smith, Trae Turck, Mallory Smith, Katie Rozell, Chelsea Smith, Orlando Cruz, Mitchell Mack, Mr. Tommy Gregg and Seth Siebrecht.

Giving Blood.

FBLA Sponsors Blood Drive

by Adalyn Stoner

FBLA hosted a blood drive on Nov 12. In total, 55 people signed up to give blood. Out of those 55, only 43 people did. 16 out of those 43 people were first time donors. You must be 16 or older to give blood.

When getting blood drawn, you have to make sure you are drinking lots of water and eating something such as chips, so you don't get sick or pass out. It is also helpful to be holding onto something and squeezing it to relieve tension in your arm.

It is important that people give blood due to the pandemic.

With the pandemic, there has been a blood shortage across the country. Giving blood makes a difference and helps those in need.

“Giving blood is an easy and great way to make a difference for other people in the world,” said adviser Mr. Tommy Gregg.

Redfield School Invites Veterans to Give Thanks

by Teige Lewis

The month of November is thought of as a month of being thankful because of Thanksgiving, but it is also a month where we can thank our veterans their service to our country for our freedom.

On Nov. 11, the Redfield Public School held a Veterans Day program. All veterans, students, and Redfield citizens were welcomed. The program was introduced by Mr. Osborn and continued by the veterans who were seated on stage.

After a few veterans shared some words with the audience, the choir sang the national anthem, which was led by Mr. John Cassens and Ms. Joy Cristobal. As they sang, the audience stood and listened with their hands on their hearts, and the veterans saluted.

Next, after the national anthem, Bob Schutte shared a poem, based on a soldier and his life before and after war. The Middle-High school principal recognized those staff who have served, such as Rob Lewis, Jodie Miles, and Wade Schlotter.

Then, the high-school band played a song called "The Road Unknown:

Portrait of a Soldier," which is about a soldier leaving his home behind and going into war. The band played music, matching the sounds of a train and gunshots for when the soldier is shot and killed during the war, and a peaceful ending, as the soldier dies for our country. The program ended with a short closing prayer led by Ted Kimball.

NHS Sponsors a Food Drive to Help Others in Need

by Rhiana Young

On Nov. 8, the members of NHS began a food drive to donate to the Good Samaritan Center.

For every two cans a student brought in, they would receive a Pheasant buck, and for every five cans that were brought in by a teacher, they would get a pass for wearing jeans. The food drive ended on Friday, Nov. 12,

In total the NHS team brought in 6 to 7 boxes of canned goods to the Good Samaritan Center.

"The food that was donated to the Good Samaritan Center will help feed the families in need during the holiday season," adviser Miss Schultz said.

Juniors Camryn Rohlf, Mallory Smith and Trae Turck collect food in the hallway from students and staff. Any student who donated food for the Good Samaritan Center in Redfield could earn Pheasant bucks, and teachers could earn a pass to wear jeans.

Cosato Earns Superior at State Oral Interp

By Jaci Hofeman

State Oral Interp was held on Dec. 3-4 in Huron at the high school. It was the 112th annual South Dakota Oral Interpretation Festival. State AA, A and B classes were all held together.

Students presented their selections in front of audience members and three judges. The judges each scored the contestants individually. Then the combined scores determined what rank the speaker got.

Isabella Cosato competed in the poetry category. She presented 2 Sylvia Plath poems: "Tulips" and "Lady Lazarus." Cosato received a Superior. Those who received a Superior were called to the stage to be recognized and received a medal.

"I am extremely proud of Isabella. She worked very hard to memorize her selection and continued to improve her performance after our region competition in Aberdeen. I feel she is very deserving of the Superior ranking she received at State," oral interp coach Mrs. Kaylin Frost said.

Isabella Cosato is recognized and awarded a medal for receiving a superior at state oral interp.

Winter Formal Makes a Comeback

By: Adalyn Stoner

On Dec. 3, the Winter Formal was brought back by the FBLA Chapter as a fundraiser for the organization. It was the first winter formal held in the last six years.

The formal was held in the Bird Feeder from 8pm-11pm. In total, 74 students showed up for the event.

When asked about the attendance at the dance, FBLA member Marie Weller stated, "I thought it was a good turnout for only allowing Redfield students to come."

Activities for the formal included dancing and beanbags.

Using speakers and a computer, music was played by Charlie Nuhsbaumer and Trae Turck. All genres of music were played as well as music all throughout the decades.

"The bean bags were fun and I enjoyed competing with friends throughout the night," Mitchell Mack said.

The dance was slow at first, until "Cupid Shuffle" came on and people joined in on the fun. Many of the songs played had certain dances to go with them, such as the "Cha Cha Slide" and "Cotton Eye Jo."

"I liked how everyone would go out and dance to the songs and have a good time. It was fun," Ashlyn Clausen said.

Celebrating Christmas Traditions

by Taijsa Puok

Christmas traditions play a big part of the holiday season. During the Christmas season, people usually set up their tree a few days before or after Thanksgiving. My family set up our tree a few days before Thanksgiving. Almost every tree has a tree topper; the most common tree topper is a star. The second most common tree topper is an angel.

Junior McKinley Haskell decorates a Christmas tree during the SADD Christmas party. She was preparing the tree for the guests before they arrived.

Many people also hang up their stockings on the fireplace and bake Christmas goodies, such as chocolate chip cookies or frosted cookies. People also drive around looking at all the beautifully decorated houses with Christmas lights.

A Christmas tradition many families might do is open one Christmas present on Christmas Eve. In my family, the parents pick out which present the kids get to open.

When in elementary school, you go Christmas caroling every year with your classmates to places such as nursing homes and banks.

Another common tradition is watching Christmas movies as a family throughout the month of December. The most viewed Christmas movie of all time is The Santa Claus, which is about a dad (Scott) who starts gaining traits like Santa Claus, then realizes he is becoming Santa. The Santa Claus came out on Nov. 11, 1994.

What is Christmas?

In my family, traditions for food include mashed potatoes, corn, corn, ham, turkey, and sometimes homemade cookies that my grandma makes. Usually, we just buy dessert foods from the store and ignore the hard part. The hard part being the cooking and slaving over the oven. The week of Christmas isn't usually busy because we have a lot of family. My family likes to go to my Grandma Vicki's or my Grandpa David's house for separate parties.

At school, I find it fun to do the trivia questions that Miss. Becker comes up with. They're usually really easy, but it's fun to do something at school for the holidays.

My favorite part about this school years activities, was decorating the SADD Christmas Tree at the Courthouse.

Middle School & High School Choirs Sing at Winter Concert

by A'jay Rogers

The middle school and high school vocal concert was held on Dec. 6. It started at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

The students who were in the high school choir were Jonathan Cristobol, Raymond Brisendine (tenors); Zachary Akin, Marcus Johnson (basses); Mercedes Yada, Reagan Nelson (sopranos). The alto singer was Lori Whitley.

"It was a good experience and everyone had fun singing at the concert," junior Jonathan Cristobol said.

The choir sang six songs.

The middle school choir students for soprano were Emma Fugman, JaLia Miles, Jerica Ratigan, Amelia Sjurseth and Kalli Spotanskei.

The alto students were Alena Gruenwald, Lily Parisien, Sophie Schaffer and Hannah Schaffer.

The students in the baritone section were Joachim Cristobol, Chace Haar, Eli Hofer, Kadrian Moreno, Jonathan Rowenhorst and Luke Rowenhorst.

The Redfield high school choir gathers on the risers at the winter vocal concert that was held in the school auditorium on Dec. 6.

Middle School & High School Bands Join Together for Concert

by Rhiana Young

On Dec. 14, band director John Cassens directed the middle school and high school winter instrumental concert. Christmas songs were played throughout the night.

The concert started with "A Festive Fanfare" and ended with "Festive Finale" both by Brian Balmages.

A few songs played in between were "Unflambeau Jeanette Isabella (Bring A Torch Jeanette, Isabella)," "Santa's Blizzard Escape," and "Moscow 1941."

Before each song, Mr. Cassens explained what each song was about and how the different instrument sections would play different pieces in the song.

He also explained a little meaning behind a few of the songs.

"My favorite song that we played at the concert was 'Moscow 1941,'" sophomore Ruthie Croeni said.

Mr. John Cassens talks to the audience and explains information about the songs that the band performed.

Students Attend Educators Rising Conference At Northern

by Jadie Turner

On Dec. 1, students Kiara O'Daniel, Marie Weller and Jack

Mills traveled to Northern State University in Aberdeen, SD with Principal

Kendra Becker to attend the Educators Rising Conference.

The conference started with all of the attendees listening to the Dean of the Education department followed by the President of Northern State University.

After listening to the welcoming presentation, the students listened to a 5th grade teacher who has ten years of teaching experience.

Following the presentation, the students split into different breakout sessions.

One of the first breakout sessions included a presentation from a professor at NSU. After this session the students ate lunch. The lunch was provided by NSU at the Kessler's suite located in the new NSU football stadium.

When finished eating, the students went to their last two breakout sessions.

The second session was presented by student teachers. The student teachers were majoring in primary education, lower secondary education, and upper secondary education.

The last breakout session that they attended had a teacher that used to teach in Groton, Anna Schwan. Schwan is now a professor at NSU.

"My favorite part of the day was talking to one of the professors who knew Mr. Oltmanns because he was his professor in college. I plan to go again next year," freshman Jack Mills said.

Lady Pheasants Prepare for Basketball Season

by Teige Lewis

As the year 2021 comes to an end, the Red-field Pheasants' basketball season is beginning. Starting November 22, four weeks into the season, the girls' basketball team has had 2 games and a scrimmage against Roncalli.

On Monday,

Dec. 13, the Pheasants faced Faulkton lost 35 - 22.

"Even after our loss, I was really proud of our team and the amount of effort we put out there," Addy Stoner said.

On Friday, Dec. 10, the girls played a double header against Tiospa Zina. The junior varsity team won 25 - 23, and the varsity team won 57 - 18.

They accomplished getting 10 "turkeys," where they stop their opponent from scoring by causing a turnover or a missed shot. Their goal is to get 7 "turkeys" in each game they play. They also had 18 turnovers.

"I think we played very well together for our first game. I am looking forward to the rest of the basketball season," Junior, Camryn Rohlfs said.

Pheasant Boys' Basketball Opens against Tiospa Zina

by Addy Evans

The boys' basketball team attended open gyms Nov. 1-22 and then started practice Nov. 29.

With 2 weeks of practice the boys' basketball team faced Tiospa Zina on Friday, Dec. 10.

The boys took an early lead the first quarter, ending the second quarter with a close score of 25-27 in favor of the Wambdi.

Coming back from half time, the boys were outscored during the third quarter, ending that period with a 9 point difference. The Pheasants lost the game with a score of 50 - 60.

Point leaders were Mitchell Mack with 21 points and Peyton Osborn with 18. The team had 27 rebounds and 9 turnovers.

"I'm excited for this season to start, I have always liked basketball and I am looking forward to playing with this team," Tristen O'Daniel said.

Senior Peyton Osborn searches for an open man or a chance to shoot during the game against the Tiospa Zina Wambdi.

Senior Spotlight

Perricone Presents to Students & Staff

by Jaci Hofeman

On Jan 6, Mr. John Perricone spoke to the middle school and high school students. He did an assembly on "Developing Inner Strength." He started off with telling everyone who he was and went into his life stories and told everyone not to give up in life.

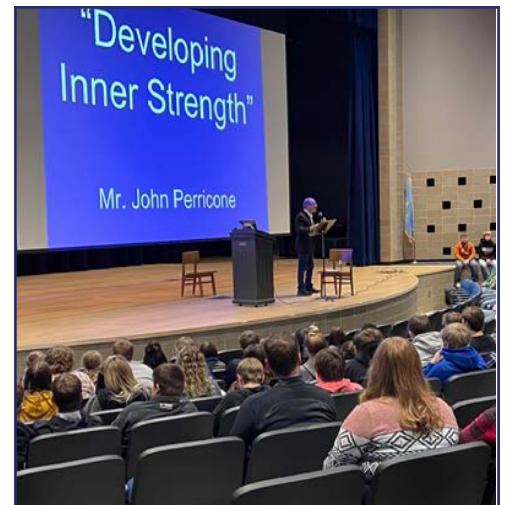

He had students from each grade help him with an activity where they held their arms out straight from their sides. He told them it wasn't a competition, and they could drop their arms anytime, but nobody did.

He also told the students a story about how someone saw him talking to a cop and the cop gave him a note to give to a teacher. A kid started a rumor saying he was a "narc", which made everyone not like him. That story stuck with him for the rest of his life.

"Given the opportunity to have someone come speak at our school about something so important was very inspiring. Also, staying after to talk to him was nice, I got to understand more of what he was talking about," freshman Adalyn Stoner said.

Mr. John Perricone spoke to teachers and administrators on January 4th at an inservice day in Faulkton. Because his engagement on the next day was cancelled due to weather, he was able to present to the Redfield MS and HS students.

Roth and Rische Compete at State Snow Queen

by Teige Lewis

The 2022 Junior Snow Queen was held on January 8th, and State Snow Queen was held on January 15th.

Freshman Brooklyn Rische represented Redfield Area at Junior Snow Queen in Aberdeen. The winner of the junior competition was Amelia Currington from Faulkton.

Breanna Roth represented Redfield Area at the State Snow Queen Festival. Macie Luce of Wolsey-Wessington was crowned the 2022 Senior Snow Queen.

The girls who participated in the Junior Snow Queen went to places to eat such as Burger King and continued to spend their day at the Allevery Center. They spent the next day doing workshops and interviews. At the end of the second day, they had a banquet and supper with their parents. Then, they had the onstage coronation.

The girls who participated in the State Snow Queen spent the first day having a "Welcome Tea" with their moms.

They had a speaker who talked about the importance of perspective. They continued the day going around town and thanking their sponsors. They ended the day off by going to Skate-Away with Frosty.

On day two, they did interviews and different workshops, such as painting pottery. After that, they had the "Queen's Ball."

On the last day they met their snow sisters and went with them to a museum to see all the Snow Queen Memorabilia they have there. Finally, they did a lot of stage practice and it was soon time for the festival.

Keeping Yourself Safe and Healthy

by Gracie Fast

Precautions on what you can do to prevent spreading sickness has been a widely discussed topic as of recently.

Everyone has their different opinions on what people should do to prevent it.

Different sicknesses going around as of right now include influenza, strep, covid, and a common cold.

Some things that you can do to stop the spread are wash your hands often, stay home when you are sick, disinfect commonly used surfaces, and don't share water bottles, food, etc.

"I take many precautions to keep myself healthy. I like to wear a beanie when it is cold outside. I wash my hands many time throughout the day and use hand sanitizer to kill germs," junior Marie Weller said.

It is very important to understand how these illnesses are spread, so we can prevent everyone such as family, friends, grandparents, and others from getting sick.

You should make sure that you are getting a good amount of sleep at night to keep yourself energized and active throughout the day.

Getting enough sleep is very important because it fights off germs and keeps your immune system strong and healthy. You should also make sure you are taking in a lot of fluids to keep your body healthy and hydrated.

Some more things you can do to stay healthy are take some vitamin c, vitamin d, and eat healthy foods.

"I take extra precautions by having my vaccinations and washing my hands," freshman Taijsa Puok said.

Junior Darren Matheis washes his hands to help prevent himself from getting any sickness that may be going around in the school.

What is your opinion on remote learning?

by Mallory Smith

Isabella Cosato,
senior

"I do not mind online learning. It is a good way to prepare yourself for college because you may have to take online courses then."

Seth Siebrecht,
junior

"I thought it was way better than actual school. I know it wouldn't actually be like that if we went online but it was nice. I got all my stuff done right away and then had the rest of the day to do whatever I wanted."

Victoria Wurtz,
junior

"I didn't really like online learning because I feel like I didn't learn as much as I do with in person learning. I am also more productive while I am in school."

Cameron Schmidt,
senior

"I personally think it would be all right if we went online. However, it is not ideal for some students who already struggle with learning."

Madyson Siebrecht,
freshman

"I don't like online learning because it is very stressful. I learn a lot better when I am in school because there are less distractions and teachers help you stay on task. I also like being able to see my friends every day."

Seth Domke, sophomore

"I thought that online school was a lot better than going to school. It was easy and I was glad to stay home for a day."

Learning from Home

Mallory Smith, journalism staff

Remote learning is a very controversial topic among students. I think there are both negative and positive aspects to it. The negative part is that technology isn't always a reliable source. There can be issues that cause you to miss important classes and cause an overabundance of stress. Others don't have the greatest internet connections at home.

I personally think that the positives over rule the negatives. When there is a snow day, we have the opportunity to log onto our classes and it counts as a full day of school. This limits the amount of make ups we have and we still get close to the same learning affect as if we were in school. It is also a great backup plan for students to continue to learn if there is ever an extreme rise in the pandemic that we are currently in.

Overall, it depends on the student and the type of learner they are. People with a more open-minded mindset will more than likely look at it as a positive opportunity that we have the chance to partake in.

Lady Pheasants Basketball Holiday Classic

by Addisyn Evans

Nine weeks into the season, the girls' basketball team has a record of 4-6.

The GBB Holiday Classic was held on Jan. 8. Seven games were scheduled between 11am – 8pm, with warm up time set at 15 minutes.

The girls' basketball team prepared for the game against Dupree with the mindset to win. With the game scheduled for 5, Pheasant fans started flowing into the gym ready to support the team.

Posts were getting guarded inside the paint with limited space to make moves. The guards were moving and cutting to get to the lane.

The first half of the game was a constant fight with points, the girls' keeping ahead a few points throughout.

Coming back from halftime, the team's guards were ready to shoot the ball.

After taking shot after shot the girls were leading by 10 points. After four quarters, the girls won 54-48.

The following Wednesday, the girls' coach was out sick, making the assistant coach the new head coach.

Shortly after, more players were restricted from playing leaving the team short a few players. Despite illnesses that plague the team, the girls keep practicing.

Team captain and senior Chelsea Smith said, "The Dupree game was a good win for us. After a hard loss, it felt good coming back the next day to get us a win. This season has had its up and downs with Covid, but we are making the best and will come back strong!"

(Above) Senior Chelsea Smith releases the ball from her finger tips on the free throw line after she gives all her focus on making the basket. ## Pheasants Claim Close Victory over Milbank

by Adalyn Stoner

The Pheasants hosted the Milbank Bulldogs on Thursday, Jan. 27. Redfield brought home a win in a close game, 52-49.

The Pheasants took on the Hitchcock-Tulare Patriots on Jan 25. The varsity team won with a score of 51-39.

On Jan 22, the Pheasants hosted Sisseton. Varsity lost with a score of 53-64.

On Jan 20, the boys were supposed to travel to Britton-Hecla, but the game got postponed to Jan 30.

On Jan. 18, the team traveled to Plankinton to play MVP and lost with a score of 52-63.

The Pheasant Shoot Out Tournament was hosted on Jan 15. The team played Waverly/South Shore and won 54-47.

The day before the tournament, the boys played Belle Fourche. It was a very close game, but the score at the end of the game ended up being 51-62 in favor of the Broncos.

The boys headed to Miller on Jan 11. The boys brought home a win over the Rustlers with a score of 59-32.

The first game back from Christmas Break was a home game hosted against Deuel. The boys lost 61-84.

"It's been fun playing basketball with my friends and competing at the varsity level. It's been enjoyable to experience new coaching techniques this year. Overall, this season has been an emotional roller coaster," Mitchell Mack said.

Junior Nolan Gall shoots the ball from under the basket. Junior Mitchell Mack stands nearby to be ready for an offensive rebound should the shot not fall.

Senior Spotlight

Mason Fey is the son of Casey and Malinda

Fey. He has two siblings: Grady (16), and Miley (13). Mason is involved in wrestling (13 years), football (11 years), NHS (2 years), student council (4 years), and FFA (4 years). Mason enjoys wrestling the most because it's the most rewarding. After high school, Mason plans on attending SDSU for an ag-related degree.

Mason will miss seeing everyone at school every day after he graduates.

Denae Paulsen is the daughter of Bob and Mar-velle Paulsen. She has three siblings: Nyakier, Melakye, and Octavia. Denae is involved in volleyball (4 years) and track (4 years). Denae enjoys track the most because it is at the end of the school year, making her motivated. Denae's favorite high school memory is dressing up for football games. Denae works as a Park and Rec assistant every summer up until school starts.

Denae is undecided on what she would like to do after she graduates.

Kaden Hofeman is the son of David and Denise

Hofeman. He has three siblings: Jade, Jaci, and Emerie. Kaden is involved in FFA for two years. Kaden's favorite high school memory is time well spent with friends. Kaden's favorite class is any history class because it is what he enjoys learning the most.

The thing that Kaden will miss the most after he graduates is the people. Kaden is unsure about what he would like to do after he graduates high school. Kaden wishes to say, "Stay golden, Pony Boy."

Evans' FCCLA Project Develops into Elementary Winter Carnival

by Addisyn Evans

What do you do on a cold winter day? Attend a fun I Hate Winter Carnival held on Saturday, Feb. 12, at the Redfield School. The carnival was a joint effort with the Redfield FCCLA, Addisyn Evans, and the Redfield PTSA.

The carnival was planned as an event for families to come and have fun. At the carnival, there were 28 carnival games, a free will donation meal, and bingo for books.

Approximately 400

individuals attended as participants or volunteers creating a successful and festive event.

Funds were raised through donations of money and items to carry out the carnival. Money will be used to help with the purchase of new playground equipment in the future.

Many high school students helped work the carnival. Volleyball team members Gracie Fast and Camryn Rohlfs helped worked the volleyball game, and Muskrat baseball team members worked the Socket to the Muskrats booth.

Many FCCLA and NHS/NJHS members signed up to help work games to get out and socialize with the community.

Junior Gracie Fast stated, "The carnival was very successful. There were tons of kids there and they all looked like they were having a blast. There were so many games for them to choose!"

Senior Peyton Osborn helps with HotShot. He handed the ball to the kids and watched her try to make it into the basket.

Lilly Blume Journeys to Pierre

by Mallory Smith

Sophomore Lilly Blume traveled and stayed in Pierre on Feb. 8-9 for the South Dakota Career and Technical Student Organizations Legislative Shadow Day.

She was one of the 38 student leaders invited to the capital for the celebration of National Career and Technical Education Month.

She was chosen for this because she is the South Dakota State FCCLA Vice President of Public Relations. She, along with others, got the opportunity to shadow legislators at committee meetings and observe House and Senate floor sessions. Lilly shadowed Representative Kaleb Weis.

“It was a very cool experience for me to be able to sit in on the house sessions. I got the opportunity to learn how it works and got to sit in a Co2 pipeline hearing. It was a great experience, and I will definitely be paging next year as I got to see them in action,” Blume said.

Students were supplied with academic skills and the ability to apply those skills for their future careers and life.

They were challenged with employability skills such as critical thinking, responsibility, and technical skills. As a result, they will be better prepared for success in high-demand careers in their futures.

Roth Returns for Second Year as a Senate Page

by Gracie Fast

On Feb. 7 – 17, Breanna Roth had started her paging visit at the capitol. She stayed in Pierre for two weeks and was at the capitol building Monday – Thursday.

Breanna's days started at 7:00 in the morning and ended around 6:00 at night.

She was sponsored by Senator Michael Rohl, but while she was there, she worked for all of the senators.

Breanna had many tasks to do while she was at the capitol. Some of the tasks she did were distributing mail, making copies, getting coffee, and distributing things from lobbyists to the senators.

Senior Breanna said, “I loved every second of my time in the capitol both this year and last year. I got to meet some amazing people and have really good conversations with a lot of legislators. The biggest thing that I learned from my time spent in the capitol is that the most important thing in politics is to be respectful of other people and their opinions, regardless of your own.”

Senior Breanna Roth takes a picture with Representative Breitling at the capitol. Roth spent two weeks in February working at the capitol building as a page. This was the second year that Roth chose to work in this position.

Step Out of Your Comfort Zone

In my own
WORDS

Gracie Fast, journalism staff

It is very important to get out of your comfort zone. Doing this can build up your confidence and can help you meet new people.

Some of the things that you can do to get out of your comfort zone while in school are joining new clubs, trying out for a play or new sport, or taking a leadership role in school, in the community, or at your church.

There are also things you can do for the community that test your creative ability and make you more adaptable to change.

Being involved in new things may also show that you are responsible and reliable. Some of these things are being a volunteer coach, helping with a food drive, or cleaning litter off the road. These things also show that you are a good citizen.

Overall, these things can improve the person you are and better prepare you for your future.

Students and Staff Take Part in "I Hate Winter Week"

By Jaci Hofeman

The week of Feb. 7-11, the high school student council put together dress up days for "I Hate Winter Week."

Students and teachers participated in this; if the students dressed up, they would get a Pheasant Buck. Teachers received jeans passes if they participated in the dress-up days.

There was also a Pep Assembly at the end of the week to wrap it up.

The band played some pep tunes while everyone was coming in and when everyone was leaving. Seniors Jacob Fehلمان, Olivia Owens and Derrek Rothacker were speakers. They recognized the winter sports coaches and called students and teachers down to jump through a hula-hoop and play rock-paper-scissors.

"The pep assembly was an exciting idea. It was very interesting to watch teachers and students participate in the game. The student council did a great job putting everything together to make the week fun," freshman Collin Dean said.

Sophomore Elijah Morrisette and Mrs. Fredericks approach each other for the pep assembly game during I Hate Winter Week.

Choral Students Attend Small Group Contest at Northern State

by Gracie Fast

Four RHS chorus members attended the small group contest at Northern State University in Aberdeen on Feb. 9.

Jonathan Cristobal received a superior on his vocal solo. Cristobal and Marcus Johnson also received a superior on their duet performance.

Johnson also received an above average on his vocal solo, and he and Joachim Cristobal received the same on their duet performance.

The three boys

(Marcus, Jonathan and Joachim) also performed a male trio and received an above average score for their ensemble.

Mercedes Yada also performed. She received a good/average on her vocal solo.

Mercedes Yada, Joachim Cristobal, Jonathan Cristobal and Marcus Johnson attended Small Group Contest at Northern State University on Feb. 9.

School Organizations Sponsor CTE Night at Ball Games

by Brooklyn Rische

CTE Awareness night for the FCCLA, FBLA and FFA organizations was held on Friday, Feb. 11 during the boys' basketball game against Clark.

This annual event featured SDSU ice cream for sale and a silent auction. Items ranged from an RHS football helmet to Redfield gear, a Dewalt drill and homemade goodies and much more donated by community members.

The event raised approximately $1,300.00 that helps fund scholarships for Redfield students who have taken CTE courses and who have applied for the scholarships.

"I feel there was a lot of support of our students and our CTE departments.

I am very appreciative of all of the support given to our students," FCCLA adviser Mrs. Cindy Brace said.

Other advisers of CTE courses are Mr. Bradley Cihak with FFA and Mr. Tommy Gregg with FBLA.

Mrs. Cindy Brace, FCCLA adviser, helped to organize and work at the CTE Awareness Night. Proceeds from the evening go toward providing scholarships for CTE students.

Lady Pheasants Finish Season

by Teige Lewis

On Friday, Feb. 18, the girls C, JV, and Varsity teams traveled to Webster for the last game of the regular season.

The girls had Wednesday and Thursday to prepare for the game against the Webster Bearcats.

The win or loss of this game determined who the team played for the first round of regions.

Addisyn Evans stated, "The C and JV players all tried their hardest every game. I am proud to be able to say I am apart of this team. It is sad to see the season come to an end, but I will continue to cheer our varsity team on as they compete in regions."

The varsity team lost to Webster and met up with them again in Florence for the first round of Region 1A on Feb. 24.

The Lady Pheasants fell behind in the first quarter, scoring only 2 points. However, they held the Bearcats to 2 points in the second quarter and led by 3 points at the half. The Pheasants led by 3 at the end of the third, but a Webster rally put the Bearcats ahead 34-31 at the end of the game.

Ashlyn Clausen led the team with 10 points, followed by Chelsea Smith with 8. Smith pulled down 10 rebounds, while Camryn Rohlf and Katie Rozell had 5 rebounds each.

Junior Gracie Fast said, "It was a tough game to lose. We had a couple of tough quarters where we just couldn't get the points put on the board, and that hurt us in the long run. We are looking forward to next season."

Pheasants Boys' Basketball Comes to an End

By Madyson Siebrecht

On Tuesday, March 1, the boys' basketball team traveled to Clark, where they would play the #3 ranked Tiospa Zina Wambdi in the first round of Region 1A.

The bus left from outside the Greeno around 4:30, arriving in Clark around 5:10. The boys were scheduled to play at 6:00, with Clark vs. Webster to follow.

Through the first quarter there was never more than a basket difference between the two teams.

Ending the second quarter the boys were down ten to the Wambdi.

Logan Siebrecht

stated, "The boys played hard defense the first half of the game; their shots just weren't going in. I didn't doubt they would come out the second half and work just as hard."

By the end of the third quarter, the boys had dropped behind some more; however, during the fourth quarter the boys put it in gear and caught up to within a few points.

With a minute left on the clock, the boys were down only four points. After a hard fight the boys lost by 6 points with a final score of 43-49.

Senior Cameron Schmidt stated, "I'm sad that the season is over, and I'm going to miss all the bus rides, practices and games with everyone. We had a lot of fun playing basketball this year."

Mason Fey Claims Championship Title; Team Places 4th at State

by Brynnley Neuarth

On Feb. 23, the Pheasant wrestling team headed to Sioux Falls for the state wrestling tournament.

Due to weather, the wrestlers didn't get a proper send off as they have had the years before.

To have something for the wrestlers, the Redfield community lined their cars up along Highway 281 to show support to them by honking and waving.

The eight wrestlers who competed at state were: Brady Risetter, Jacob Fehlman, Mason Whitley, Mason Fey, Corbin Schwartz, Sean Domke, Gavin Nichols and Grady Fey.

As a team, the wrestlers placed 4th overall with a score of 96 points. Placing ahead of Redfield in 3rd was Winner with 137 points; Kimball/White Lake/Platte-Geddes finished in 2nd with 141 points; Canton took first place with 155.5 points.

Out of the 8 wrestlers who competed at the state tournament, five of them placed.

Individuals who placed include: Mason Fey (160) placed 1st. Grady Fey (285) placed 2nd. Brady Risetter (160) placed 3rd. Corbin Schwartz (182) placed 3rd, and Mason Whitley (145) placed 5th. Also representing RHS at state were Jacob Fehlman (126), Sean Domke (195) and Gavin Nichols (220).

On Saturday, Feb. 19, the Pheasant wrestling team took part in the Region 1B tournament in Britton. The tournament ran all day with 16 teams participating.

Kingsbury Co. placed 3rd scoring 145.5 points. Clark/Willow Lake placed 2nd scoring 146 points. Redfield placed 1st scoring a total of 208.5 points.

Individuals who placed at regions included: Brady

January Students of the Month

by: Jadie Turner

Grade 12: Amelia Jungwirth

Amelia Jungwirth

Amelia Jungwirth is the daughter of Mike and Tonja Jungwirth. She has two siblings: John (19) and Ian (14). Amelia also has a dog Viktor and a cat Thunder. Amelia spends some of her time at her job at Dairy Queen. Some of Amelia's hobbies include reading, video games, and listening to music. Her favorite class is Intro to Literature, because there are some very interesting stories that she reads. An activity that she is involved in is SADD. The class that challenges Amelia the most is Fundamentals of Speech because she struggles with public speaking. Her favorite season is winter because she says that it is funny watching her dog play in the snow.

Grade 11: Marie Weller

Marie Weller

Marie Weller is the daughter of Matt and Angela Weller. She has two siblings: Henry (18) and Kevin (15). She also has a dog named Jesse. Some of her hobbies include spending time with friends and family, baking, watching Netflix and listening to music. Her favorite class is anatomy because although it is a challenging class, Mrs. Fredrick makes it fun and easy to learn. Activities that Marie is involved in include girls basketball student manager, volleyball, golf, softball, church youth group, and matchbox volleyball. Her favorite season is summer because it is softball season and she has more freedom. One goal she has made for herself is to get straight A's.

Grade 10: Autumn Olsen

Autumn Olsen

Autumn Olsen is the daughter of Jackie and Tristian Olsen. She has two siblings: Colton (15) and Vincent (9). She also has pets. Some of Autumn's hobbies include music, books, and writing books and songs. The class that challenges her the most is interior design because she is not good with different types of houses. She overcomes this by trying her best and working even harder. One goal that Autumn has made for herself while in school is to get good grades in all of her classes. Some advice that she would give to younger classmen would be to never give up and try their best. They should also study for tests and quizzes.

Grade 9: Addisyn Evans

Addisyn Evans

Addisyn Evans is the daughter of Monte and Britt Evans. She has two siblings: Abby (19) and Elizabeth (17). Activities Addy is involved in are NJHS, FCCLA, basketball, golf and softball. Her hobbies include sports and reading. Advice that Addy would give to underclassmen would be that no matter how stressed and overwhelmed you get from school and other activities, know that it is okay to ask for help and never give up. The class that challenges her the most is intro to business. Addy says that she is not good at remembering business problems, so she spends more time studying for this class than others.

Grade 8: Hayden Gall

Hayden Gall

Hayden Gall is the daughter of Keith and Karen Gall. She has four siblings: Kole (29), Rylie (22), Morgan (20), and Nolan (17). Hayden also has two dogs: Maggie and KC. One goal that Hayden has made for herself while in school is to have good grades.

Grade 7: Lorena Evans

Loreana Evans

Lorena Evans is the daughter of Nicole and Nelson Evans. Lorena has four siblings: Nina (9), Jonathan (7), Violet (4), and Dante (2). Some advice that Lorena would give to underclassmen would be that if you work hard you will be able to achieve what you want.

Grade 6: Katryn Evans

Katryn Evans

Katryn Evans is the daughter of Amanda and Dominic Evans. She has three siblings: Spencer (9), Kyler (5), and Ryker (2). Along with her siblings, she has a cat named Kozmo. Katryn says that her favorite season is summer because we don't have school.

Peyton Osborn

Peyton Daniel Osborn is the son of Brent and Michelle Osborn. He has 3 siblings: Bennett (20), Owen (17) and Camden (17). Peyton says his greatest accomplishment has been winning State Jr. Legion Baseball and making First All State for the Muskrats. After high school, he plans to play college baseball and go to school for elementary education or business. When Peyton was asked what his hobbies or interests were, he said that they were baseball, basketball, football and watching sports. His favorite class at RHS has been PE because Mr. Oltmanns makes class a lot of fun for everyone.

Chelsea Smith

Chelsea Smith is the daughter of Jay and Sherry Smith. She has 3 siblings: Sydney (20), Annie (17) and Kinley (14). She has been involved in basketball (13 years), volleyball (13 years), student council (4 years), NHS (2 years), and FBLA (4 years). After high school, Chelsea plans to attend SDSU and major in nursing. She says her favorite high school memory has been making it to the SoDak 16 in basketball 4 times in a row. The three best words to describe Chelsea is organized, caring and independent. Three things Chelsea says she must do in her life time are to get a successful job, raise a family and be overall successful.

Owen Osborn

Owen Lee Osborn is the son of Brent and Michelle Osborn. He has 3 siblings: Bennett, Camden and Peyton. One of his best nicknames from high school has been the name Oscar. Owen's favorite high school memory is making silly videos with Tanner, Derrek and Camden in Mr. Gregg's multi-media class. Two things that he would like to do in his lifetime are to watch a Cub's game at Wrigley Field and win Sr. Legion State. Owen has participated in basketball (1 year), FBLA (1 year), and baseball (4 years). His favorite though has been playing baseball because he enjoys having fun and competing with his friends.

Burke Williams

Burke Williams is the son of Richelle and Alan Williams. He has two siblings: Jacey and Cully. One extra-curricular activity that he is involved in is rodeo, and he has done it since he was 8 years old. Burke says he likes rodeo because he enjoys roping and hanging out with his rodeo buddies. One of his favorite junior high memories was when Mason Fey accidentally punched Burke in the face when he was trying to get him to flinch. Burke has worked on his family farm for as long as he can remember. After high school he plans to work on the farm.

Carter Wright

Carter Wright is the son of Shane and Kristy Wright. He has one sibling: Tanner. After high school he plans to attend Lake Area Technical College in the diesel tech program. An accomplishment that Carter is proud of is that he is getting the Kibble Equipment Scholarship which gives him a full ride scholarship to college. During high school he has been involved in FFA for 4 years. He enjoys FFA because he enjoys Ag, which is what FFA is mostly about, and getting to meet new people. When asked what class his favorite is he says shop, because he enjoys welding, woodwork, etc., and of course, Mr. Cihak. Carter has worked for DeYoung Farms for 7 years.

Senior Spotlight

Aidyn Spotanske

Aidyn James Spotanske is the son of John and Kelsey Spotanske. He has two siblings: Kalli and JP. Aidyn has been involved in football (5 years), trap (4 years) and FFA (4 years). His plans after high school are to go to college at Lake Area to be a diesel mechanic. After college he plans to work at Butler. When he is asked about his hobbies, he states that his favorites are hunting, fishing and golfing. One of Aidyn's greatest accomplishments has been making it through high school and being able to graduate. He has spent 5-6 years working on a farm.

Breanna Wurtz

Breanna Wurtz is the daughter of Heather Wurtz and Jeremy Dunstan. She has 5 siblings: Tori, Claricee, GracieAnn Wurtz and Lanie and Karlie Dunstan. She has been involved in SADD for 3 years (freshman, sophomore and senior). After high school Breanna plans to go to school for optometry. When she is asked what her favorite class has been she says, "Art because it is a set back class where you can kind of do your own thing." One of Breanna's favorite childhood memory was when they went to Wylie Park with her grandma Stroman and it started raining so they had to run to the Lion's Den. She says the one thing she is going to miss the most after gradation is driving teachers crazy.

Jacob Fehlman

Jacob Fehlman is the son of Carinna and Kenny Fehlman. He has one sibling: Abby. Jacob has participated in wrestling (12 years), football (9 years), FFA (4 years), NHS, baseball, trapshooting, NJHS, student council and band. He has especially enjoyed wrestling because of the success they have had as a team. Jacob's future plans include attending SDSU in Brookings and is still deciding on a major plan of study. Some of Jacob's hobbies and interests include hunting, hanging out with friends, and lake activities like tubing, knee-boarding and wake-boarding. Jacob has worked with his dad on the farm for the past five years. Jacob says that he will really miss seeing his friends after graduation.

Cameron Schmidt

Cameron Schmidt is the son of Matthew Schmidt. He has one sibling: Kayden. He has many nicknames such as Cam, Schmidty, Camshaft, and Spidermonkey. Cameron has been involved in football (8 years), basketball (7 years) and track (2 years). When asked what he enjoyed most he stated he enjoyed football the most because he loves it the most and he gets to be around more people compared to other sports. One of Cameron's favorite vacations was when he shot his bull elk in the Black Hills with his dad. The day he finally shot his elk was on the 10th and final day of their hunt. "It was a lot of work but so rewarding," Cameron said.

Isabelle McGaugh

Isabelle McGaugh is the daughter on James and Jayme McGaugh. She has 6 siblings: Isaac, DJ, Maxwell, Timothy, Clayton and Keeley. Her proudest accomplishment has been maintaining the same job since 8th grade at the Eastern Star Nursing Home. After high school, Isabelle plans to attend Lake Area Tech and get a degree in business. Isabelle says some of her hobbies are playing piano and ukulele, painting, and hanging out with friends. Isabelle said, "My favorite day was the day my son was born. I waited so long for him to get here." When she leaves RHS she hopes to be remembered as kind, determined, and hardworking.

PHEASANT FOCUS

Senator Dusty Johnson Speaks With the Students

by Jaci Hofeman

On March 21, Senator Dusty Johnson came and spoke with the middle and high school students in Greeno gym. He began his presentation by telling the students who he was and where he grew up. He then went straight into answering questions because he had about a half an hour with the students.

He went to each section and asked if students had any questions. Some questions asked by students were about current affairs that dealt with Putin, Russia, gasoline prices, the draft, and if the United States should worry about going to war.

After answering the questions, Senator Johnson posed for pictures with any students who wanted to take a picture with him.

Senator Dusty Johnson hands the mic to a student. The student asked him a question and he went back down in front of everyone and answered the question.

Community Members Serve Lunch to Students & Faculty on National Ag Day

by Gracie Fast

National Ag Day took place on March 22. This was decided by the FFA members when planning what events would take place throughout the week. It was then approved by Mr. Seiler.

The school had reserved parking spots for anyone who wanted to drive their tractor to school. Some students who participated in driving their tractors to school were Riffin Baloun, Kayden Schmidt, Creighton Bowar, Aidyn Spotanske, Carter Wright and Elliott Komraus.

At 11:30 A.M. the high school students went to the auditorium to listen to a few of the guest speakers, Ron Frankenstein and Dana Lewis.

For lunch, volunteers served burgers with a bun, fancy mac and cheese, chips, the choice of water or milk, and SDSU cookies and cream ice cream for dessert.

None of this would have been possible without the sponsors which included Precision Soil, Agtegra, RDO, Wilbur Ellis, Malpert Insurance, Redfield Energy, Proven Ag, Farm Credit, Tom Lambert, Redfield Food Center, and Leo's.

Mr. Ron Frankenstein speaks to the students about how agriculture has changed over the course of the last 50 years.

Fighting for Tessa: Dodgeball

by Adalyn Stoner

On Thursday March 31, the RHS student council hosted a dodgeball tournament as a fundraiser for Tessa Jatón.

There were a total of 15 teams. "Lactating Muscles" which included Chase McGillivray, Grady Fey, Elijah Morrisette, Kevin Weller, Nolan Gall, and Mason Whitley got first place.

In total, around $3,200 was raised, and all proceeds went to Tessa for medical costs.

Each student council made bars for a free-will donation, then left over bars were sold the next day at school.

Overall, when asking students about how they thought the tournament went, they all enjoyed it and liked that they were playing for a good cause.

"I think the tournament went great and it was great seeing everyone there playing and having fun. I hope to do it next year and have more teams sign up," Elliott Komraus said.

Komraus also added, "Coming together with my friends to make a team was really fun, and I think our team will do even better next year."

Community members, staff, and students all got together to make the dodgeball tournament possible. Student Council also played a big role in making the tournament possible by organizing it, providing food and drinks, and making the brackets.

Waiting for the signal to begin, the team of Elliott Komraus, Tyler Esser, Riley Brabant, Noah Johnson and Brooklyn Rische line up and prepare to sprint to center court to get to the balls first.

Focus on a Strong Finish to the Year

Jaci Hofeman, journalism staff

As spring is near, that means summer will be here shortly. School is going to be done sooner than we know it.

I personally feel like school has been going by fast. It may feel like school has been going by slow for some, but we are already in the 4th quarter of the school year.

My advice is to try your best and continue working hard until the last day. Try to make 4th quarter the best quarter you have had this year. Get your work done on time and put some effort into it. A little bit of effort can improve your grades tremendously.

Make a goal for yourself before the school year is over and try to accomplish it. These next few weeks are going to go by fast considering the number of days we have off for events.

We have a few short weeks coming up and sooner or later it will be the last day of school.

RHS faculty also got in on the dodgeball tournament fun. Mr. Dalton Mogck and Mrs. Liza Bixler watch as Mr. Bradley Cihak winds up to try to knock out one of their opponents.

FCCLA Members Host Annual Parents' Night

by Mady Siebrecht

On April 7, FCCLA members held their parents/awards night event.

FCCLA members gathered in their adviser's room to get ready for their presentations.

Parents night is held so parents and others can come and watch members present their projects. It is also a night for students to practice before the state meeting.

FCCLA adviser Mrs. Brace, finds people to come in and judge the members so they can fix things before it is time to present at state.

The introduction for the night was held in the auditorium at 7. Around 7:10, people wandered into their presentation rooms and got ready to perform in front of judges.

There were 5 different presenting rooms, with at least three different projects being shown in each one.

After presentations were over, everyone gathered back into the auditorium for awards.

The final part of the FCCLA night was inducting new officers for the high school and middle school FCCLA chapters.

Carmen Herrera was chosen to be the new communication and finance leader, along with Lilly Blume, who was chosen as the new Vice President for the 2022-2023 school year.

The new high school FCCLA President for the 2022-2023 school year is Bridgette Lambert.

Eighth grade student Murphy Lewis presents her project to judges and audience members at the local FCCLA Parents' Night.

Students Travel to NSU and SDSU for Health-Related Experiences

by Addisyn Evans

On March 8, anatomy students traveled to Aberdeen for an NSU Scrubs Camp. The NSU Scrubs Camp was a day at PC to get hands on when dealing with health care.

There were many different professions to learn about, some consisting of EMT, dental care, pharmacy, and more.

This camp happens once every year and is open to anyone interested in learning about the medical field.

Most students were a part of the Anatomy and Physiology classes that our school offers. Mrs. Fredrick and Ms. Becker supervised as students explored the world of health care.

Senior Reagan Nelson said, "I had lots of fun at the camp! We all learned so much and got to do some hands-on activities, which was my favorite part. All of the instructors were very kind and helpful as well."

On April 6, Mrs. Fredricks' anatomy class traveled to SDSU to tour the anatomy lab.

The entire anatomy class attended and got the opportunity to look at a human cadaver.

Students left right after first hour and returned around 5:00 that same day.

Junior Ellie Evans, attended the tour of the anatomy lab at SDSU. Evans stated, "It was cool getting to see, touch, and learn more about the human body and all the organs that we are made up of. However, when I thought about how all these organs are inside of me and that I was looking at a real human body I felt a bit uncomfortable."

Mrs. Fredrick's anatomy and physiology class recently attended health-related events held on campuses of NSU and SDSU.

FFA Students Compete at Groton & Northwestern CDE

by Teige Lewis

On April 7, Groton High School held a CDE invite for Redfield and other towns.

Events that were held there were poultry judging, ag business, livestock judging, land judging, dairy judging, plant science, animal science, and meat judging.

After all the events, all the students and supervisors had lunch together.

Here are the results: Ag Business: Zachary Akin placed 17th. Nursery Landscape: Kyle Woodring- 5th, Tyler Esser- 10th, Elliot Komraus- 14th, Bridgette Lambert- 23rd. Redfield placed 4th overall nursery landscape. Natural Resources: Kevin Weller- 14th, Mason Fey- 23rd, Jacob Fehlman- 37th, Corbin Schwartz- 39th. Redfield placed 7th overall for natural resources. Milk Quality: Collin Dean- 23rd, Creighton Bowar- 26th, Dawson Zens- 34th, Logan Siebrecht-

36th. Redfield placed 9th overall for milk quality. Agricultural Mechanics: Tegan Marzhan- 32nd, Aidyn Spotanske- 38th, Carter Wright- 46th, Justin Ratigan- 47th, Riley Brabant- 59th. Redfield placed 11th overall for Ag. Mechanics. Students traveled to Mellette to compete at the Northwestern CDE on March 15. The Poultry team of Elden Blume, Benson Beckler and Jaxen Campbell placed 5th, and the Nursery Landscape team of Kyle Woodring, Elliot Komraus and Tyler Esser placed 4th.

On March 4, the Redfield FFA hosted a CDE. The Nursery Landscape team finished first. Team members included Tyler Esser, Kyle Woodring, Bridgette Lambert and Elliot Komraus.

The Poultry team took 6th place. Members included Elden Blume, Jaxen Campbell, Benson Beckler and Evan Jatton.

Track and Golf Teams Begin Seasons

by Brynnley Neuhardt

Spring sports are here! Golf season has started with Addisyn Evans, Cecilia Suchor, Marie Weller, and Amelia Sjurseth out with Mr. Mark Schaeffer being the head coach.

"As the golf season is upon us, I am excited to get out on the course and improve myself as a golfer. It's exciting to gain a new member, as we lost a few from last year. I have made a lot of memories from golf, and I'm excited to make many more," Addisyn Evans said.

"I am excited for the season to start and see the 4 girls out improve as the season goes," Coach Mark Schaeffer said.

They will have their first meet April 14th in Mo-bridge.

The Pheasant track team had their first meet on March 28th at the NSU track in Aberdeen.

With 40 students out for track, this year's track roster has grown rapidly.

A few personal records were set at the meet. 55m dash: Camryn R. with 7.72, Denae P. with 7.98, Teryn J. with 7.96, and Camryn S. with 7.58. 800m: Kyle W. with 2:16, and Payton M. with 2:23. Shotput: Colin F. with 38'  $\frac{3}{4}$ , and Olivia O. with 26' 8.5.

"The first meet was okay. There were a lot of schools that took part in it. For my first year of doing track, I've noticed it's not like every other sport. It is more individual and more rewarding," Sol Munoz said.

The team also took part in the meet held at the SDSU track in Brookings on April 4th.

With top athletes competing at the meet from South Dakota, Iowa, and Minnesota, the Redfield track team did very well competing.

Results included: 100m: Camryn R. placing 5th, Teryn J. placing 12th, and Denae P. placing 20th. 200m: Teryn J. placing 20th. 400m: Kyle W. placing 20th. 800: Kyle W. placing 20th. 1600m: Charli J. placing 23rd. 110m hurdles: Tristen O. placing 15th. 300m hurdles: Tristen O. placing 21st. 100m hurdles: Kaylin K. placing 25th. 300m hurdles: Camryn R. placing 13th. 400m relay: Boys-16th and Girls-4th. Mile relay: Boys-13th and Girls-18th. Boys Shot: Colin F. placing 21st. Long Jump: Elliot K. placing 16th, and Camryn R. placing 4th.

Osborn Makes All Conference, Holds 3-point Record

by Brynnley Neuhardt

Senior Peyton Osborn has been a part of the Redfield (Redfield/Doland at the time) basketball team since he was a freshman in high school.

As a junior, Osborn held the school's season record of 97 made 3-point shots.

The career record for made 3-point field goals was held by Pete Siegling with 118. Siegling graduated in 2002.

Osborn made RHS history during his senior season as he broke his own record and the school record with a career total of 120 3-point shots.

Osborn was recently selected to play basketball on the All-Conference third team. The players are selected by the region basketball coaches.

Seniors vs. Staff: Teams Split Victories

by Madyson Siebrecht

On Thursday, May 22, the students and staff took part in an NHS Seniors vs. Staff game night. They participated in volleyball and a basketball game.

The seniors won the volleyball portion of the night, and the staff won basketball thanks in part to Mr. Masen Oltmanns.

The event is a National Honor Society sponsored activity that has gone on for many years. Admission was either a donation for the food pantry or $2.00.

High school English teacher Mr. Dalton Mogck stated, "I had a lot of fun; it was enjoyable to see the friendly competition between the students and staff. We got worked in volleyball but ended strong with a dominant win on the court."

Camden Osborn dives for the volleyball during the volleyball competition of the Seniors vs. Staff games. The seniors dominated the court and defeated the teachers.

Students Dance at Rustic Garden Prom

by Jaci Hofeman

The junior class hosted Prom on Friday, April 22 in the Ken Greeno gymnasium. The theme was "Rustic Garden," which the junior decorators worked to set up during the week prior to Prom.

People who were attending had to be in the building by 2:30 and couldn't leave until it was over.

Before Grand March, family and friends who wanted pictures with the students had to get them at that time.

Mrs. Jodie Miles announced the couples, and each one went around the gym three times. The first time they were announced with their names and who they went with, the second time so everyone could see them again and the third time was the fun run.

After Grand March, the couples made their way to the Bird Feeder for the banquet, which was catered by Leo's Good Food. They had a choice between chicken or beef, which was served by NJHS members.

The senior video was shown after people had eaten. Everyone then went back to the gym to dance to the music by DJ Doctor.

The night ended with Post Prom, which lasted until 3AM. Students played games, watched the hypnotist, created art projects, and won a variety donated prizes.

"Post Prom was a lot of fun. We played bingo and painted mugs. The hypnotist was great. I won a flash drive and a mini fridge that will come in handy when I start college at Lake Area in the fall," senior Olivia Rice said.

Seniors Chelsea Smith and Mason Fey dance the night away together. Music was provided by DJ Doctor: Pam and Brian Hull of Tulare.

Students Attend State FCCLA

by Gracie Fast & Mallory Smith

The Redfield FCCLA chapter gathered with other chapters from across the state at the FCCLA State Leadership Conference on April 10-12. The conference was held at the Ramkota Hotel and Convention Center in Sioux Falls.

The theme for the event was "Shoot for the Stars and Make It Count."

Those who attended participated in workshops, STAR events, general sessions and social activities.

Keynote speaker Holly Hoffman, who competed on the TV show Survivor, addressed the students with a message about not being able to go back and change what happened in the past and being able to start over and create a new ending.

The meeting concluded with the current officers handing off their responsibilities to the 2022-2023 officers. Lilly Blume served as the current Vice of Public Relations and helped plan the meeting. Amelia Sjurseth was selected as next year's National Outreach team. MaKayla Schultz was selected for the Current Trends team and Lilly Blume was selected for the Advocacy Team.

Those advancing to Nationals, which will be held in San Diego June 27-July 4 are: Lilly Blume (STAR Event and FCCLA Chapter Website), Emeri

Hofeman (STAR Event- Event Management), MaKayla Schultz and Cora Krueger (STAR Event- Instructional Video), Bridgette Lambert & Carmen Herrera (STAR Event- Interpersonal Communication), and Terielee Bonin & Savannah Risetter (Spot Light on Projects for National Award).

The Redfield FCCLA chapter will be accepting the National Families First Award at Nationals.

Summer is Almost Here!

Summer is a great time to take a break from school and regenerate before the next school year. For many, it is a time to work longer hours and make more money. Students have the opportunity to sleep in more frequently.

There are numerous recreational activities that people do in the summertime. Some of these include swimming, tubing, camping, and just spending more time outside.

While you may get a break academically, there are still commitments if you participate in a sport during the school year. This includes agility, open gyms, camps, and league nights. These things are important especially if you are in a fall sport because they help you stay in shape.

It is important to spend your summer doing what you enjoy the most and use it as a time to recover from the previous, stressful school year.

FFA Members Attend State Convention

by Teige Lewis

State FFA was held on April 24, 25, and 26 in Brookings at South Dakota State University.

Four seniors received their state degrees at the convention: Carter Wright, Mason Fey, Jacob Fehlman and Aidyn Spotanske.

"It was worth it to keep track of all of the work and hours that I have put in since I was a freshman to get my state degree," Wright said.

Sophomore El-

den Blume placed first in Vegetable Production Proficiency and will advance to Nationals in Indianapolis. He also finished third for Poultry Proficiency.

These were the results for Redfield: In the category Ag Business, Redfield placed 16th out of 25. Zachary Akin- 49th, Aidyn Spotanske-69th, and Grady Fey- 70th.

For Ag Mechanics, RHS placed 42nd out of 55. Justin Ratigan-123rd, Tegan Marzahn- 131st, Carter Wright- 144th, and Riley Brabant 165th.

In Livestock Eval, Redfield got 36th out of 60. Chase Frericks- 76th, Lilly Blume- 149th, Chloe Zens-152nd, and Brooklyn Rische- 165th.

For Natural Resources, the Redfield team placed 30th out of 58. Mason Fey- 67th, Corbin Schwartz- 132nd, Jacob Fehlmen- 133rd, and Kevin Weller-140th.

In Nursery Landscape, Redfield placed 10th out of 40. Kyle Wodring- 28th, Elliot

Komraus- 32nd, Bridgett Lambert- 46th, and Tyler Esser- 48th.

For Poultry, the team placed 15th out of 30. Elden Blume- 37th, Evan Jatton- 56th, Jaxen Campell- 58th, and Benson Beckler- 71st.

Redfield sophomore Elden Blume (standing on the right) was awarded at the State FFA Convention in Brookings for placing third for Poultry Proficiency.

Golf Season Plagued by Cold Weather and Flooded Courses

by Addisyn Evans

Cold weather, rain and flooded golf courses have plagued the spring girls' golf season. The girls have only been able to compete at three meets because of this.

The first girls' golf meet, scheduled to be held in Milbank, was postponed two separate times before it was canceled due to the cold weather.

On April 28, the team finally had their first golf meet, which was a home meet held at Fishers Grove golf course. Varsity golfers played 18 holes, and JV participants played 9. All members improved their scores from the previous year.

On May 5, members traveled to Aberdeen to play at Moccasin Creek. Moccasin is an 18-hole golf course with many hazards.

Addisyn Evans placed 13th overall with a 116.

Groton's meet was moved to Milbank after their course flooded; then Milbank's course flooded so it was moved to Fishers Grove on May 10.

"The beginning of the season was difficult due to the weather. Several practices had to be held indoors and a few meets were postponed or canceled. The girls have continued to work at their games and improve daily," head coach Mr. Mark Schaffer said.

Grady Fey Gets Gold All-American Title

by Gracie Fast

For sophomore Grady Fey, wrestling did not end after the state tournament in February with his second place finish in the 285# division.

On April 8, Fey traveled to Hartford to wrestle in the AAU freshman-sophomore duals. While in Hartford, he wrestled two South Dakota kids to determine which team he would be on to advance to the next level of tournament action in Iowa.

Fey ended up pinning both of his opponents and got put on the South Dakota Rage team.

He then headed to Des Moines on April 9 and would be there for two days. He ended up with a record of 8 to 0 and received Gold All-American.

Dylan Murray Takes First in Mitchell

by Adalyn Stoner

Freshmen Dylan Murray and Collin Dean wrestled in Mitchell on April 29 in the South Dakota/USA Triple Crown Wrestling Tournament.

Murray placed first in folk-style portion and the Greco portion of the tournament. He also placed second in Freestyle.

Collin Dean did not place at the tournament.

Murray stated that his favorite style of wrestling is Greco. "My favorite part of this tournament was eating after I was done. At first I was nervous but eventually I felt better," Murray said.

The track team also had their first outdoor meet April 8 in Huron. With the weather that has occurred this track season, it has been a little harder for the team to participate in outdoor meets, which makes it challenge for them to prepare for state.

The team has only taken part in four outdoor meets. That includes: Huron, Redfield Relays, Estelline on April 26th, and one in Sisseton on May 6. The students participating in track have set many new PR's for themselves for almost every meet as they move forward.

Camryn Rohlfs participated in the Howard-Wood Relays on Saturday, May 7 in Sioux Falls. Rohlfs was accepted into the meet in Long Jump with a jump of 16'7 and the 400 M dash with a time of 1:03.44.

Freshman Brooklyn Rische and sophomores Ruthie Croeni and Jersey Morrison sit on the field and wait for the next races to start during the Redfield Relays.

Sophomore Justin Ratigan and junior Kyle Woodring congratulate each other and rest after running their race at the Redfield Relays.

Grade 12: Tahlur Lambert

Tahlur Lambert

Tahlur Lambert is the daughter of James and Holly Lambert. Some of her hobbies include driving around, hanging out with friends, watching Netflix, and playing her instrument. The class that challenges Tahlur the most is physics because of the math involved. She overcomes this by asking the teacher for assistance and making sure that she is doing the assignments the right way. Some advice that she would give underclassmen is to work hard and to accomplish as much as you can, turn things in on time, and communicate. You are capable of whatever you set your mind too. Her favorite season is summer because there is so much to do, and the weather is nice.

Grade 11: Camryn Rohlfs

Camryn Rohlfs

Camryn Rohlfs is the daughter of Darrel and Colleen Rohlfs. Camryn has four siblings Landon (26), Brooklyn (24), Leyton (20), and Keaton (17). Some of Camryn's hobbies include hanging out with friends, family and watching TV. Her favorite season is summer because it is warm, softball season, she can go to the lake, and it is less stressful. Some activities that she is involved in are volleyball, basketball, track and field, softball, and the Lutheran Youth Organization. Some advice that she would give to her underclassmen would be to work hard, try your best, and to get the things that you need to get done finished while having fun because it goes by quick.

Grade 10: Tyler Roberts

Tyler Roberts

Tyler Roberts is the son of Tracy and Dave Roberts. He has two siblings Tevin (18) and Talyn (14). Some of his hobbies include hunting, fishing, driving, and eating. Tyler works at Dairy Queen. The thing that he likes best about the work he does is that it teaches him a lot of new skills and gives him a chance to meet a lot of new people in the community. One goal he has made for himself while in school is to just get through school with good grades and make it into collage. The class that challenges Tyler the most is geography. He says that in most classes he does not have to study, but in geography he has to try and study.

Grade 9: Brooklyn Rische

Brooklyn Rische

Brooklyn Rische is that daughter of Dustin and Andi Rische. She has two siblings Hudson (11) and Bristol (8). Some activities that she is involved in include volleyball, basketball, track, NJHS, FFA, FBLA, student council, yearbook, and newspaper. Some advice that she would give to younger classmen is to enjoy time, do your work, and not procrastinate for too long. Also, to go to games and support your community. Her favorite season is summer because she gets to hang out with friends. One goal she has made for herself while in school is to maintain a 4.0 and keep up on work while being involved in extra circular activities.

Grade 8: Murphy Lewis

Murphy Lewis

Murphy Lewis is the daughter of Robert and Dana Lewis. She has two siblings Jack (10) and Turner (8). She also has two dogs Indie and Remington and one cat Benny. She says that her favorite season is summer because there is nothing to worry about.

Grade 7: Layla Hardie

Layla Hardie

Layla Hardie is that daughter of Jaime and Matthew Mogen. Layla has two siblings Mason (9) and Leo (5). Along with her family she has 1 dog named Harvey. Some activities that Layla is involved in is basketball, volleyball, softball, dance, church, and track.

Grade 6: Dawson Marlow

Dawson Marlow

Dawson Marlow is the son of Nathan Marlow and Tynan Anderson. He has two siblings Braelon (10) and Tenley (6). His hobbies include drawing, reading, and writing. He says that his favorite subject is science because he learns about the weather.

Senior Spotlight

Olivia Rice

Olivia Rice is the daughter of Angela and Travis Rice. She has one sister: Addy Rice (13). One accomplishment she is proud of is getting accepted into college and going to national FCCLA. During her high school career, she has been involved in FCCLA (2018 – 2022) and SADD (2018 – 2022). One class that Olivia said she has enjoyed most at RHS has been anatomy because the teacher is the absolutely the best... Mrs. Fredrick. She has worked at Eastern Star for 4 years and Subway for 6 months. After high school she plans to attend Lake Area Tech for nursing.

Colton Minnick

Colton Minnick is the son of Mike Minnick. He has 4 siblings: Corey, Katie, Tyler, and Cheyanne. During high school he was involved in FFA (2 years), football (3 years), and wrestling (k – 8). He states that his favorite junior high memory was when Mr. Olson made all the guys stay in the room after class for being rude. Colton's favorite class while at RHS has been shop because he likes to work on things with his hands. After high school, Colton plans to attend Lake Area Tech for diesel or join the Marines.

Caleb Schultz

Caleb Schultz is the son of Ron and Nicole Schultz. He has one sibling, Mariah Schultz. One of his favorite childhood memories was seeing Mt. Rushmore for the first time on his 6th birthday. His favorite classes at RHS were dinner foods, history, and chemistry because he likes science, history, and food. One thing that Caleb has to say about life is to just live a good full lifestyle. After high school he plans to get a house and find another job, but he is still debating on livestreaming as a career.

Elsa Wren

Elsa Wren is the daughter of Ron and Kris Wren. She has one sibling: Barrett Wren. During her years at school, she has been involved in SADD (3 years), FCCLA (3 years), Oral Interp (4 years), and band contest (3 years). During her time at RHS, she says that her favorite class is art. Art is her favorite because there have been cool teachers and lots of supplies. One of her favorite junior high memories was writing on the walls of the old school before the building got demolished. Three things that Elsa says she must do in her lifetime is to have/build her very own house, travel as far as she can, and lastly, make bank. After high school, she plans to attend the School of Mines and get a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Olivia Owens

Olivia Owens is the daughter of Matthew and Wendi Owens. She has two siblings: Hannah and Kyle. During her time at RHS, she was involved in track (3 years), band (4years), choir (3 years), sideline cheer (2 years), competition cheer (2 years), FFA (1 year), FCCLA (3 years), FBLA (3 years), dance (2 years), and All-State (2 years). She says that she enjoyed track and cheer most because in cheer "you get to work together as a team and is only as strong as your weakest link." She likes track because it can be seen as an individual and as a team sport. Olivia says her favorite class has been physics because Mrs. Fredrick brings a level of understanding to subjects that she never thought she would comprehend. After high school, she plans to attend SDSU for Mechanical Engineering.
