

Redfield PTSA Meeting
Thursday, November 16, 2107 at 5:15 p.m.
Redfield Elementary Media Center

Members present: Audrey Appel, Karla Chase, Felicia Ethridge, Amy Hermann, Dawn Kopplin and Shawn Nichols.

Amy read the October meeting minutes. The treasurer's report was discussed.

We bundled Redfield Food Center receipts during the meeting. Karla will check to see if any kids who need community service hours could start to help bundle the receipts.

Karla still has not heard back from state PTA on some questions we had. We still do not have very many membership forms returned.

The carnival went well. The online sign-up was great, but the second shift was hard to find for people who used their phones to register. Karla will look at not having to make a comment to sign up, maybe then it will be shorter. We need to start thinking of new games and we need to redo some of the signs. All of the games and things are being stored at the library until the new school is done. Karla will get Amy a list of sponsors and they will be posted on our facebook page.

Amy will get the Christmas tree set up in the courthouse again.

The K-2nd grade conferences were this week, Karla got the teachers sub sandwiches and we used the bars left over from the teacher supper.

Karla received an insurance bill. Shawn will get it paid.

Lifetouch was here and took pictures of the classrooms and the school for the yearbook. We will hand out the yearbook order forms in March.

We need to start selling the afghan raffle tickets for the school playground equipment. Those who have tickets at this time are: Karla, Dawn, Felicia and Amy. Karla will also look into selling tickets at basketball games and the elementary and high school offices.

Tom Fink donated Terry Redlin prints again for a food drive. They drive will be held December 4th-8th. For each item donated their name will be in the drawing.

March 5th the School Mall books will go home with students.

The spring book fair will be held during conferences March 19-21. We need to find a place to hold the book fair.

In January Karla will order the school planners to receive an early discount.

The teacher appreciation breakfast will be held in May.

There will not be a meeting in December. The next meeting will be Tuesday, January 9th at 5:15 p.m. in the elementary media center. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Amy Hermann, Redfield PTSA Secretary
